BURL CAIN, Commissioner, Mississippi
Department of Corrections and
LYNN FITCH, Attorney General of the State of Mississippi

RESPONDENTS

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL TIME TO FILE STATE COURT SUCCESSIVE PETITION FOR POST-CONVICTION RELIEF

This matter is before the Court on the Motion for Additional Time to File State Court Successive Petition for Post-Conviction Relief [Doc. #45] filed by the Petitioner, Timothy Ronk. In an earlier Order, this Court required Ronk to file that petition in state court by July 5, 2021. A review of the docket of his state court case shows that Ronk filed a motion for appointment in state court, which was opposed by the State. The purpose of the petition was to exhaust claims of ineffectiveness of post-conviction counsel, a right created by the Mississippi Supreme Court in Grayson v. State, 118 So. 3d 118, 125-26 (Miss. 2013).

On July 10, 2021, the Mississippi Supreme Court entered an Order dismissing his motion for appointment, “without prejudice to his right to seek a determination from the district court on whether it is appropriate for [habeas counsel] to exhaust his claims in state court in the course of their federal habeas representation.” Counsel for Ronk has filed a motion for reconsideration or clarification of that ruling. For these reasons, the Court is of the opinion that the Motion should be granted, and Ronk should be given an additional thirty days within which to file his successive post-conviction petition in state court.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Motion for Additional Time to File State Court Successive Petition for Post-Conviction Relief [Doc. #45] is GRANTED. The Petitioner has until August 4, 2021, within which to file his successive post-conviction petition in state court. The other deadlines established in the February 23, 2021 Order [Doc. #35] remain in effect.

It is so ordered, this the 6th day of July, 2021.
